MDCCCXXXIII.

Report by the Directors
OF THE PROVINCIAL BANK OF IRELAND, TO THE PROPRIETORS ASSEMBLED AT THE EIGHTH YEARLY
GENERAL MEETING,
ON THURSDAY, THE 16TH DAY OF MAY, 1833.

THE Account which the Directors have now the pleasure to lay before this Meeting of Proprietors, shewing the result of the operations of the Bank for the past Year, is in itself so satisfactory, as to render any lengthened detail unnecessary; exhibiting as it does, the soundness of the principles, and the efficacy of the system, on which the management of the Bank has been conducted, and proving that the confidence which the Directors have expressed from year to year, in the prosperity of the undertaking, has been well founded.

It may not, however, be unacceptable to the Proprietors that the Directors should shortly advert to the general progress of the Business during the Year that has elapsed, on account, more especially of two circumstances of an important character which occurred in the course of the Year, and by each of which, it was to be apprehended the condition of the Bank would be materially affected.

The first of the Circumstances here referred to, was the existence and progress of that dreadful Malady the CHOLERA, by which Ireland in common with England and Scotland, but with greater severity than either, was visited; which in many of the Towns produced for a time nearly a total suspension of Business; and from which, even at the present moment, that part of the Empire is not altogether free. The effects upon Commerce generally, of a Disease so widely spread over the Country, and so fatal, need not be enumerated. In the diminution of Business which all Establishments experienced, as also in Losses, which in several instances arose from the non-fulfilment of the obligations of parties who were suddenly cut off, the Bank necessarily shared; and it had besides to lament the more affecting loss of three much esteemed Local Directors, and of a valuable Officer, who fell victims to this afflictive visitation.

The other Circumstance which has been referred to, was the RUN FOR GOLD, which, as most of the Proprietors will be aware, was excited in the South of Ireland by Political Agitation, in the months of February and March last, and which was directed equally against the Provincial Bank, the Branches of the Bank of Ireland, and the Savings Banks, in that part of the Country. The Demands upon the Provincial Bank, were to a considerable amount, but the Directors had the satisfaction of seeing that the excitement was almost entirely confined to ignorant Holders of Notes, who being easily deluded, became the dupes of agitation, without perceiving at the time, the injury to themselves to which they were thus made instrumental, by producing the temporary stagnation of commerce which ensued, and the consequent depreciation in the market of every article which they had to sell. The Depositors, though a very numerous class of persons, remained with a very few exceptions unaffected, and not one respectable Merchant was known to give the smallest unte-nance to the schemes of the designing parties by whom the Run was excited.

Although the Bank, therefore, was by this occurrence subjected to some extraordinary expence, it was matter of congratulation among those interested in its welfare, to perceive that the confidence of the Country in its Stability, was so conspicuously manifested at the same time; and the Directors are of opinion that any temporary diminution of profit which has been produced by the circumstance referred to, is to be held as far more than compensated to the Establishment, by the more deeply rooted conviction of its utility to Ireland, which has thus been proved to exist in the minds of all the respectable part of the community.

For the satisfaction of the Proprietors, it may be further stated, that while it is at all times the care of the Directors to maintain at every one of the Branch Banks, a reserve of Specie proportionate to its Liabilities, in the regular and ordinary course of business, the experience which they have acquired from the repeated extraordinary Demands recorded in their Annual Reports, has enabled them, as it did in this last instance, to calculate nearly to certainty, the extent to which extraordinary provision for such demands will be wanted. Ample Funds are always kept in a productive, yet tangible state, to meet such emergencies, without exposing the Bank to any sacrifice whatever, by the conversion of more permanent Securities.

Having thus noticed the two unfavorable Occurrences of the Year, referred to in the outset of this Report, the Directors have now to advert to the general character which the Business throughout the past Year has presented, and which, notwithstanding these adverse occurrences, has enabled them to submit the Account now about to be laid before the Proprietors.

To those connected or acquainted with Ireland, it is scarcely necessary to state that the Harvest of last year, though considerably later than that of 1831, was still more abundant. The prices of Corn, the most important article of Irish produce, were, at the commencement of the Season of Export in 1832, much lower than those at the corresponding period in 1831; and as the Season has been drawing to its close, prices have continued to experience a still further declension. The natural consequence has been, that while with regard to the quantity of Produce exported from Ireland, business to an equal or greater amount has been transacted in the Season 1832-3; the money value has been from 20 to 30 per Cent less than it was during the greater part of the Season 1831-2, and the Profits of the Bank have undoubtedly been affected to a certain degree by this circumstance. But the Business of the Season 1832-3, has been on the whole a safer one, than that of the year which preceded it; fewer Failures have occurred, and the Bank has accordingly kept comparatively clear of Losses by Bad Debts.

In addition to this gratifying circumstance of comparative immunity from Loss, as characteristic of the Business of the Season nearly ended, the Directors have the further satisfaction of stating to the Proprietors, that the Bank is evidently now beginning to reap the advantages it was entitled to expect from the benefits, which are admitted on all hands to have been conferred on Ireland by its institution, Its object being to conduct its Business in such a manner as to give encouragement to Industry, and to call into action the natural resources of the Country; its prosperity is intimately connected with, nay, inseparable from the improvement of the condition of the People, as the Country itself advances in Agriculture and Commerce; and, notwithstanding the distress which, in some districts, presses so heavily on the poorer classes, it is not to be denied that a perceptible improvement in the cultivation of the Land, and in the comforts of the People, is gradually extending itself over the greater part of Ireland; accompanied, as the Directors have good means of knowing, by a growing acquisition of Capital among the industrious part of the community, from which still more beneficial results on the condition of the People may be fairly anticipated.

Were any further proof wanting, either as to the advantage of the Institution of the Provincial Bank to Ireland, or to the progress of agricultural and commercial industry throughout the land, the Directors think it is to be found in the number of applications which they continue to receive for the establishment of additional Branches. From the places whence these applications have proceeded, the Directors have in the mean time selected Banbridge, in the County of Down, as a station affording the promise of respectable and useful Business, and the necessary measures for establishing a regular Branch Bank in that place are already in progress. Several of the other applications appear to be well deserving of consideration, and will in due time receive attention.

With these observations, the Directors proceed to lay before the Proprietors the following Statement:—

General Meeting, the Amount of undivided
Profits, at 31st March, 1832, was.* } £32,227 16 10

Such being the satisfactory condition of the Bank's Affairs, the Directors have the gratification of announcing their intention to Declare a Dividend of 3 per Cent. for the half year ending Midsummer next, being at the rate of 6 per Cent. per annum on the amount of Capital paid up.

OLIVER FARRER,

Chairman.

2. That the Report of the Directors, which has now been read to the Meeting, be received, and printed for the use of the Proprietors.
